

CHURCH SEATS AND CHURCH PEWS

New Styles Cheap and Endurable.

Comfort and Beauty Combined.

UNTIL the large number of people who are never seen in churches can be assured that every church in this vicinity will have a set of seats that will be clean, comfortable and inviting, they will not be seen inside a church. Many churches will supply this long-felt want if they could do so at prices and on terms within their reach, thus increasing their attendance, drawing on the unusually large number of people who do not attend the churches, and which would evidently result in every service being crowded. A barrier has been in the way in the form of high prices, shoddy goods and no terms. This barrier has been removed by the Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board, which has presented the new style church seat (its own creation and its own make). These seats are constructed of the best grade of hardwood. They are built by the best skilled mechanics and have proven to be the most comfortable ever offered at the prices. The terms on which they can be purchased are so easy that any church, regardless of its financial condition, can secure a set of these by a small cash payment, have the seats installed and pay the remainder in monthly or quarterly payments to suit their own financial condition. How long, with such inviting inducements offered, will it be, before every church in and about Nashville will get a set of seats? References can be given to the Nashville churches by referring them to Rev. L. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church, Pearl St.; Rev. J. L. Harding, pastor of the North Third Avenue Baptist Church, both of whom have seated with new style church seats; Rev. G. B. Taylor, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, corner Stevens and DeLuge Sts.; Rev. Wm. Haynes, pastor of Sylvan Street Church, Shelby Avenue, who have installed the church pews.

Special to the Globe:

The Supreme Grand Lodge and Supreme Convention Independent Order of Immaculates have been in biennial session in this city since Tuesday morning, August 6. Next to Tennessee, Alabama is second in strength in the Order and so far as endowment obtains, Alabama leads all the other states.

Among the Tennessee representatives are Dr. R. F. Boyd, A. A. Fisher, A. B. Bradford, W. S. Thompson, R. A. Pellow, B. J. Merritt, Chas. The entire delegation numbers 116. Interesting reception exercises were held Tuesday morning, the State Grand Master of Alabama being Master of Ceremonies. C. E. Millier, Supreme Grand Master, delivered an encouraging report of the two years' labor, and this report received the unanimous endorsement of the Supreme Convention.

The election of officers for the next two years was as follows: C. E. Millier, Decatur, Ala., Supreme Grand Master; R. F. Boyd, M. D., Nashville, Tenn., Supreme Deputy Grand Master; A. A. The next Supreme Grand Convention and Grand Lodge will likely meet in either Chattanooga or Nashville.

ANOTHER MURDER.

Fatal Fight in a Saloon on Broadway.

William Green was fatally stabbed by John H. Hyde in Dortch's saloon, 119 Broadway, last Saturday night. The resort was packed with men who were quietly enjoying themselves.

Some say that Hyde approached Green, who was sitting at a table, and immediately the men grappled and fell to the floor. Hyde arose and left the place, going toward Second avenue. Green remained in the saloon some five or ten minutes and left. He fell dead at the corner of Broadway and Second avenue. It was found that he had been badly wounded by a knife thrust, the blade entering the body in close proximity to the heart. The murdered man was about thirty years old and his home was at 201 Fifth avenue, South. The alleged murderer is between 20 and 25 years of age and lives 828 Twelfth avenue, South.

Hyde gave himself up to the police at the station house about 8 o'clock Sunday night. On Monday morning he was arraigned in the City Court on the charge of murder and pleaded guilty. Judge Baker bound him over to the Criminal Court.

GIRL INJURED.

Rachel Battle, a girl about 12 years old, was badly hurt on Monday morning while passing the store of the O. K. Houck Piano Company. It appears that a part of one of the heavy plate glass windows fell and struck the arm of the girl. She was carried to a private infirmary, where her wounds received the attention of the physicians in charge. It is stated that she will never be able to use the arm again. The child's parents are in the employ of Finley Dorris, the funeral director.

OFFICER SHOTS MAN.

On Saturday night there was intense excitement at the western approach to the Church street viaduct. Upon investigation a representative of the Globe learned that a policeman named Alley had shot Jordan in the house of Bessie Piper in Comer's alley, a thoroughfare west of Eleventh avenue, between Church and Grundy streets. The officers went to the house to arrest Jordan on a charge of being disorderly, and he says that the man, who was lying on a bed, arose and came toward him with a knife in his hand. The officer, according to his story, fired in self-defense, the bullet entering the body just below the heart. The unfortunate man was taken to the City Hospital and received careful attention at that place. Wednesday afternoon the physician in charge of the case informed the Globe office that Jordan was "resting easy." Jordan's version of the affair remains untold.

NEGRO BANKS.

Negroes have found out that the only way to get a financial standing and rating in the commercial world will be to open their own financial concerns, and throw themselves into the money market, thereby getting an insight on the advance and decline in this mighty dollar question. It will be noted with much satisfaction, and possibly with a degree of pleasure, that but few cities in the South are without a Negro bank. Some of them have two well established banks, said a well informed gentleman to a Globe representative. When asked how many banks there were owned and operated by Negroes in the United States, he said that he thought there were thirty-five, but that his memory was not very clear. It is known, however, said he, that they are being organized almost every month. The latest and possibly one of the strongest in the South is the Southern Bank at Jackson, Miss., of which the Bankers' Register states has a paid up capital of $50,000. They have only been open since September, 1906. There is another bank in Jackson known as the American Bank & Trust Co.

Birmingham, Ala., also enjoys the distinction of having two banks. The People's Banking Company of which W. L. Lauderdale is the president, and which institution is doing a remarkable business, and the Alabama Penny Savings Bank, of which W. R. Pettiford has the distinction of being the oldest bank president in point of service in the race.

Then there are two banks at Vicksburg, Miss., and it is in this place that Nashville is represented, in the person of T. G. Ewing, Jr., who is cashier of the Union Savings Bank. The Lincoln Savings Bank is the name of the other bank at Vicksburg. It is astonishing to see that in the largest cities it is impossible for the Negroes to get close enough together with their moneys to open these institutions. There is not a Negro bank in Montgomery, Mobile or New Orleans, yet a number of these cities could support one with ease. The smaller places seem to have the advantage. For instance, Gessemer, is preparing to open a bank with a capital stock of $25,000. One-half of this amount is already subscribed. The movement is under the direction of Mr. W. B. Smith, Dr. W. H. Coleman and others prominently connected there. That they will succeed is a foregone conclusion, as these men promise to do their utmost and with the confidence of the people they already have, success is assured.

The bank at Memphis is enjoying wonderful prosperity, while the One-Cent Savings Bank of this city has already established and maintains the greatest standing ever attained by an institution in so short a time. But they can not continue to grow unless the representative men and Negro organizations will patronize them. The last comptroller's report of the One-Cent Savings Bank showed that the same healthy condition and marked increase noticeable in the December report, was apparent in every respect. It is hoped that the Negro Bankers Association, organized recently, as a result of the Negro Business League, will stir up the business interests along this line.

TURNER NORMAL.

Rev. J. A. Jones, A. M., D. D., Principal of the Turner Normal and Industrial School, Shelbyville, Tenn., is off for an important trip to the western part of the state. He went directly from here to Memphis, and from Memphis out to meet several district conferences. He hopes to do much in the way of raising funds for the new building now being erected for the school at Shelbyville. These rural district conferences make good showings for their denomination. Rev. Jones is also expected to visit other districts. He is working diligently and with a degree of success for the upbuilding of the school. He proposes to install quite a number of recitation seats and a large number of new automatic double school desks. These will be put in for the opening of the present school term. Rev. Jones stated to a Globe representative that it was his intention to make the Turner Normal Industrial School one of the best educational institutions in the state of Tennessee run exclusively by Negroes.

Quite a number of Columbians attended the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in Nashville this week.

BRIGHT-EDMONDSON.

Miss Martha Edmondson and Mr. Clarence Bright were quietly married last Wednesday evening at St. Paul A. M. E. Church. Rev. C. H. Boone performed the ceremony. The bride wore a very becoming white embroidered dress and white satin girdle with long streamers at the back and carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns.

The bride came in leaning on the arm of her cousin, Mr. John Edmondson, who afterwards gave her to the groom. Mrs. Hattie Perkins was patron of honor and Miss Lula Lewis was bridesmaid. The best man was Mr. Ben Manning, of Memphis, and Messrs. Charlie Scruggs and George Hicks were ushers. The bride was the daughter of Rev. N. L. Edmondson, who was pastor of the A. M. E. church at Florence, Ala., at the time he met his death, about six years ago. Many valuable presents, consisting of cut glass, silver, etc., were received, also a check from her uncle, Rev. D. C. Edmondson, of Birmingham. The bridal party went from the church to the home of Mrs. Brooks, on Grundy street, to the reception. Dancing was the feature of the evening. At a late hour a three-course menu was served by Misses Ada and Mayme Douglas and Hattie Edmondson.
